Andersson Company Byggnads AB

Our aim is to raise the standard of the building process

Andersson Company Byggnads AB is one of the six largest construction companies in Greater Stockholm. We are endeavouring to influence the building process and to raise standards throughout all building stages. We therefore want to continually improve the organisation of work and routines with the goal of:

- Increasing job satisfaction and participation.
- Better co-operation and the provision of room for personal influence.
- Surpassing the buyer's expectations.
- Strengthening teams and recognising the individual.
- Being clear in order to achieve success in communication.
- Emphasising consideration and trust in all relationships.
